CHAMBER MUSIC INSTITUTE 2011 AT KEAN UNIVERSITY

Kean University and ASTA/NJ proudly present the 7th Annual ASTA/NJ Chamber Music Institute at Kean University.

Students will have the opportunity to work with top performers and instructors to develop chamber music performance skills. Students will participate in master classes, instrumental workshops, special reading sessions, free elective courses, and presentations by top string educators and performing artists. Guest artists perform for students and general public in Kean University's stunning new recital hall, Enlow Hall. Each session of CMI concludes with a concert featuring student ensembles performing repertoire prepared during the previous week. Housing in Kean University's state of the art, new student residence halls is a proven student favorite!

Students Say . . .

"I have now attended the ASTA CMI at Kean University for three years, and it continues to be the most meaningful week of my high school summer vacations. The nurturing music education environment coupled with state-of-the-art Kean facilities makes the CMI experience one I'll never forget. I can honestly say this program has changed my life and opened my perspective on all levels!"

"I had a wonderful experience at ASTA/CMI. It was the best and most beneficial summer camp I have ever attended, and the most I have ever learned!"

"This was my son's second year attending, and he had the "time of his life"... I have to say the final concert was awesome-it brought tears to my eyes... I have never seen him play with such passion, intensity and confidence ."
