

The New Jersey Chapter of the American String Teachers Association invites you to the

Eleventh Annual String Symposium

Mimi Butler, Betsy Maliszewski, Co-Chairs

Friday, March 27, 2009

8:30 am to 4 pm

Rossey Hall, New Jersey City University, Jersey City, NJ

hosted by

Dr. Edward Raditz, Chairman, Department of Music, Dance, and Theater

<http://www.njcu.edu>

- 8:30 am Registration
- 9 am- 2 pm Workshops, Clinics, and Master Classes for Elementary and Secondary String Teachers and College Students
- 2 pm- 4 pm Hands-on Yamaha Electronic Instrument Demo

- Master Classes on the required 2009/2010 NJ All State/Regional Orchestra audition solos for Violin, Viola, Cello, and Bass
- Clinics and Workshops presented by
 - Dr. Gerry Fischbach, String Pedagogue
 - Dr. Nola Campbell, Chamber Music Specialist
 - James Sadewhite, Conductor and Educator
 - Charles Ruffino, LI Violin Shop, Yamaha Representative
 - Master Classes and Seminars by NJ String Educators:
 - Kevin Brown, Bass
 - Fran Rowell, Cello
 - Maryann Mumm, Violin
 - Craig Mumm, Viola

Don't forget your instruments!

12:15 pm Buffet Lunch – A Lunch Buffet is available for an additional $15.00
(lunch is only available for pre-registrants)

Plan on heavy metropolitan area morning traffic
Please Note: The 2009 Symposium is for Educators

NOT High School Students