

ASTA/NJ Chamber Music Institute at Kean University

Elective Offerings ASTA/NJ CMI 2010

ELECTIVE COURSE OFFERINGS AT CMI FOR NO ADDITIONAL FEE (STUDENTS ARE REQUIRED TO SELECT ONE FREE ELECTIVE AT REGISTRATION)

- ✓ Sessions meet Monday – Friday from 4:15pm-5:15pm
- ✓ 10 student limit per class – another reason to register early!
- ✓ Thursday's session allows students to try a free elective other than the one s/he selected at registration

Composition Instruction

- ✓ Beginning Composition teaches elementary motivic writing to students in small group sessions (assuming enough interest to form a class). Student composers write music with the goal of presenting it during the final week of the program as performed by their peers.

Alexander Technique

- ✓ This workshop will provide students with knowledge in maintaining and improving applied instrumental techniques. Using the principles of the Alexander Technique, this workshop will give students the ability to recognize and change potentially harmful movement patterns. These changes can result in increased coordination, flexibility, facility, and career longevity

Improvisation Workshop

- ✓ This workshop will focus on providing students with tools, ideas and skills necessary to improvise in a variety of musical styles (blues, jazz, bluegrass, latin, etc...). Students will learn via hands-on training and 'jam sessions.'

Music Technology Workshop with Professor VJ Manzo

- ✓ This workshop will focus on providing students with the opportunity to develop a variety of music technology skills in Kean University's state-of-the-art Mac lab. Professor Manzo has astounding knowledge and experience with everything from Algrhythmic Composition to standard software applications for musicians (Pro Tools, Finale, MIDI based applications, etc...). This class will begin with an assessment of the current level of student participant's knowledge and will develop from there.
