

Training Course for Cadet Teachers Registration Form

The Training Course for Cadet Teachers is a ten-hour course designed to cover the basic knowledge needed to start or remediate violin students. Please note: This is an intensive course, meant for students who plan to teach in the near future. It requires close attention, active participation, and a commitment to learn.

Course content:

- A minimum of 5 critiqued practice teaching opportunities
- Student set-up and posture
- Left and right hand skills
- Detailed study of at least one beginner method
- Supplemental literature
- How to set up a teaching studio
- Selection and care of instruments and basic equipment
- How to solve common teaching problems
- String teacher resources

Upon successful completion of the course, participants will receive an ASTA/NJ Cadet Teacher Training Course Certificate, signifying that the cadet teacher is qualified to teach less-experienced students for an appropriate fee.
