

ASTA/NJ SOLO STRING COMPETITION

Biography: Angela Kim

Angela Kim (10th Grade, Ramapo High School, Franklin Lakes NJ) was born in the U.S. in 1996. She is a pupil at the Juilliard School Pre-College Division studying with Dr. Ann Setzer & Mr. Khullip Jeung. Recently, she made her concerto debut with the NOVA Philharmonic at Merkin Concert Hall. Angela won the first prize award at INPASS competition in 2011, and performed in the Winner's Recital at the Kennedy Center, Washington DC. She was also announced as the first place winner at the AFAF/Golden Strings of America, 2011 International String Competition and will perform at the Carnegie Hall in January of 2012. Over the past few years, she was selected to be a member of the New Jersey All-State Intermediate Orchestra and All-North Jersey High School Symphonic Orchestra. She served as a concertmaster of Ridgewood Festival Strings and the Mannes Symphony Orchestra. During the summers, she attended Blue Mountain Festival and Meadowmount School of Music.