

ASTA/NJ SOLO STRING COMPETITION

Biography: Solomon Oak

Solomon Oak, 16, is currently a student at the Bergen County Academies (Academy for Medical Science and Technology at Hackensack, NJ). In 2010, he was the concert master for the North Jersey Regional Orchestra. He has also been playing with the New York Youth Symphony Orchestra since 2009, which performs three times a year at the Carnegie Hall. He has been studying the violin with Mrs. Yu Jeong Lee Dr. Yu Jeong Lee, a member of Sejong Soloists, for five years. He and his family, as a quartet, enjoys sharing music with the local community, especially with those who do not readily have access to music. In addition to music, he is a black belt in Taekwondo. He won the 2011 American Taekwondo Championship.