

ASTA/NJ Jasper String Quartet Festival

Sunday, February 9, 2020

10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Newark Academy

91 South Orange Ave.

Amy Emelianoff, Music Director

Livingston, NJ 07039

For: • Eight (pre-formed) middle school or high school student chamber ensembles
• General public at 1:00 p.m.*

9:45 • registration at the Wilf Middle School Common Room (follow signs to the last door on the left side of the Newark Academy Main Entrance)

10:00 • Jasper String Quartet plays for 5-10 minutes, and explains the process that goes into setting the tempo, articulation, and style of the music.

10:30 • Students break up into groups - 2 ensembles each - and go to 4 different classrooms. Parents can stay in the lounge, or join students if space permits. JSQ members each take a classroom, and spend 40-45 minutes with each ensemble, inviting the other ensemble members to join in the discussion.

12:30 • Lunch – Middle School Common Room - Sandwiches and water will be provided, or you may bring your own

12:45 • Registration for the free 1:00 performance/lecture

*1:00 • Middle School Common Room - JSQ plays a complete quartet (35-40 minutes) followed by Q&A. Students will know ahead of time what will be played, so that they can prepare their questions.

Fees:

$65 for each performing student

Checks can be made out to ASTA/NJ and sent to:

Peg Roberts, Box 417, Mount Tabor, NJ 07878

Directions: available on mapquest

To register, and for more information:

Peg Roberts

pegzr50@gmail.com

973-610-8135

For more information about the:

American String Teachers Association

ASTA/NJ

www.astaweb.com

www.astanj.com

Jasper String Quartet
Newark Academy

www.jasperquartet.com
www.newarka.edu